

ONNERA Group writes the future of the industry together with the big players of the sector at Host Milan 2019

- The round table ‘Titans of Industry’, organised by Foodservice Consultant, was the scene of participation of seven of the leading brands in equipment for the restaurant and hotel trade.
- ONNERA Group was the only Spanish company taking part in the debate.

Oñati, 30 October 2019. – ONNERA Group, an international business group dedicated to providing equipment solutions for the restaurant, laundry and refrigeration applications sector, was present at the largest restaurant event held to date, Host Milan 2019.

Foodservice Consultants Society International (FCSI), a leading global association in consulting for the restaurant and hotel sector, organised the encounter “Titans of Industry” to which the 7 main companies in the sector worldwide were invited. At the meeting, the situation of the sector and the innovations which could change it in the future were debated. Alongside the CEO of ONNERA Group, Iker Alberdi, the CEOs of The Middleby Corporation, Ali Group, Irinox SpA, Meiko Group, Rational and MKN GmbH also took part.

“It is always a pleasure to have the opportunity to share our common concerns about the present and future of the sector alongside other leading companies”, states Iker Alberdi, CEO of ONNERA Group. “The fact that we were the only Spanish company invited to the meeting not only makes us proud, it also strengthens the Spanish sector, which is one of the main European manufacturers of hotel equipment”, he points out.

Held for the 41st time, this year’s Host Milan stood out for the innovation shown by the over 2,000 exhibitors spread all around the fair. ONNERA Group has had a strong presence at the fair, with 4 of its own stands for the brands Asber, Domus, Danube and Fagor, where they were able to show the new features launched in the 2020 catalogue.

The group’s presence at Host Milan in 2019 was very positive all round and has given ONNERA Group the opportunity to keep strengthening its presence in the sector and positioning itself at the leading edge of the industry.

“It is an honour for us to have been present once again at such a relevant fair as Host Milan. It is an opportunity to show the market the innovations and new developments we will launch in 2020, and to demonstrate the benefits we offer to our customers with them. Our impression of the fair was very positive, and our objectives have been met, so we are looking forward to returning to Milan in 2021”, concludes Alberdi.
